

POLICE ARE DOWN FOR SPITLESS TOWN

Mr. Woods Bids High and Low Make Each Member Dirt's Sworn Foe.

IN BRASS AND BLUE TO SHINE LIKE NEW

Next Week, You Know, Parade Will Show That New York Cops Are "Comme Il Faut."

Police Commissioner Woods is busy making a clean-up of his department. But this time it is a clean-up in the literal sense, for the Commissioner is seeking cleaner quarters, with fresh air and smart appearance. Schmittberger is visiting all the station houses to see what improvements can be made. Whatever is needed to help the policemen realize a greater self-respect, he orders it in. Whatever is there merely accumulating dirt, he orders it out.

Lieutenant McCann, head of the Bureau of Supplies, follows the inspector around to complete the new clean-up scheme. The job of a New York City policeman is to be made attractive to the very best class of men, men so clean in every way that dirt cannot tempt them.

Commissioner Woods himself went through the Headquarters building with a hard broom. He got hold of "Bull" McCarthy, the custodian, and took him from collar to collar. When they had mounted the last spiral staircase, McCarthy puffed and could not get breath enough to express his delight as he wished to express it.

The Police Department received a shock last night when it was discovered that a revolution in the "shoo-fly" system had been inaugurated. Commissioner Woods evidently intends that men who religiously stick to their posts at night shall not be unnoticed.

Each inspector was yesterday assigned two lieutenants, whose duty will be to move about the district at night and check up the patrolmen. This work has hitherto been done by sergeants. The change in the grade of the job is said to be part of Commissioner Woods's uplift movement.

The parade of the "finest" next Saturday will be a surprise to the public, the Mayor says. More than 7,500 men will be in the march on Fifth av., but the special feature is being kept a secret. It is some kind of display by two squads, six mounted men and six afoot.

Because of this star event, and other novelties in the way of drills and thrills, the reviewing stand this year, which is to seat 2,000, is to be at the plaza at 50th st. Thirteen regiments, twelve foot and one mounted, with twenty-five motor wagons, squads of motorcycle and bicycle and a detail of marine policemen will be in the line of blue and brass that starts from 23d st. at 1:30 p. m.

WHEELER MAY HEAD BOARD

[From The Tribune Bureau.] Washington, May 8.—Harry A. Wheeler, of Chicago, who has been offered a place on the Federal Reserve Board by the President, was a caller at the White House to-day. Mr. Wheeler is vice-president of the United Trust Company, of Chicago. He indicated that he would accept the place on the board. He is a Republican.

The President expects to send the nominations of the members to the Senate next week.
